

"The Perfect Corpse" Video Reflection Write-Up

Begin by creating an outline of your reflection write-up.

Title:

Thesis Statement:

(remember your thesis statement becomes the last sentence of your first paragraph)

Main Idea: (complete sentence)

Supporting detail (complete sentence)

Supporting detail (complete sentence)

Main Idea: (complete sentence)

Supporting detail (complete sentence)

Supporting detail (complete sentence)

Main Idea: (complete sentence)

Supporting detail (complete sentence)

Supporting detail (complete sentence)

Main Idea: (complete sentence)

Supporting detail (complete sentence)

Supporting detail (complete sentence)

You should have a copy of this completed and turned in by the end of class.

You may keep the original to work with your writing piece.

Your one-page to one and one-half page reflection write-up will include your handwritten rough draft along with your final TYPED version.

Your piece should be double-spaced with one inch margins.

Use a minimum of 5 forensic science terms and underline them.

Use complete coherent sentences that transition and flow.

Use shorter sentences only between longer sentences
(make sure each word counts).

Your writing is Due on Monday, April 30th.